Ziron (noun):

HISTORY OF MEKHALA AND RAMASOON

Mekhala, the Goddess of Lightning, and Ramasoon, the God of Thunder

Mekhala was a nymph and was born of the sea, of the froth of the waves. With bewitching eyes and long curling locks, her beauty knew no bounds.

Mekhala loved to soar through the heavens and across the waters, flitting this way and that. One day, while flying high in the sky she was spotted by Ramasoon.

Now Ramasoon was also a God. He was born of the storm clouds and the rain was his cloak and carried with him a battle axe. The first time he saw Mekhala he fell in love with her beauty and knew right then and there that he had to possess her.

Mekhala did not feel the same way and she spurned Ramasoon's advances. In fact Mekhala often teased Ramasoon, she mocked him before quickly flying up and away into the clouds. Ramasoon decided that even if he could not win her heart, he had to possess her.

The next time he saw Mekhala he set chase. Dark storm clouds gathered around Ramasoon and cloaked him from Mekhala's view. His plan was to wound Mekhala so that she could not escape him and he would make her his own. When the time was right Ramasoon threw his battle axe hoping to capture the beautiful Mekhala.

At the same time Mekhala held out her hand in which was a magical jewel, a crystal that she used for protection. Bright light flashed from it blinding Ramasoon as he threw his axe. The axe missed its mark and rattled harmlessly across the heavens as Mekhala made her escape.

Thus we have the story of lightning and thunder.

MODERN ADAPTATION

Mekhala, a protector of ancient world sites and forgotten knowledge, forms an unlikely alliance with Amir, an ambitious CEO of a commodities and mining corporation.

As they join forces to uncover an ancient underwater temple, the magnetic pull between them becomes undeniable, slowly revealing an even deeper twin flame connection that stems back millennia. As they finally reach the center of the temple, the duo uncovers an ancient disc that is known to house unimaginable power if combined with the remaining discs around the world.

As Amir makes this realization, his ambition grows to possess them all. After Mekhala makes several unsuccessful attempts to stop him, a battle begins, and the veil between their past lives dissolves, activating their latent superpowers.

Guided by the ancient wisdom of Lord Ganesh, Mekhala and Amir's journey is not just a quest for power but a deep dive into the realms of knowledge, spirituality, and the eternal battle between light and dark. Can a bond that is strong enough to break the veils of time overcome the hurt of several lifetimes?

MUSIC OF THE GODS

Dr. Tony Cicoria, a renowned pianist and composer, discovered his extraordinary musical talent in a most unexpected way. After being struck by lightning, Tony experienced a profound transformation, igniting a passionate drive to create music that transcends ordinary boundaries. His compositions, often described as ethereal and deeply moving, explore the powerful interplay between sound frequencies and human consciousness.

Tony graciously offers his composition for our use, stating:

"You certainly have my permission to use my 'Lightning Sonata' in your film. Nice presentation...you touched on so many truths, I can only hope that people's consciousness is opened and elevated to understand what you are presenting. I have often thought that the frequencies in the music have a much greater purpose than I can understand...possibly stimulating a DNA response or effect on consciousness."

FOUR HANDS, TWO HEARTS, ONE SOUL...

In Hinduism, Lord Ganesh holds a position of prominence as the Deity of New Beginnings, intellect, and wisdom. Revered by countless individuals across the world, both within and beyond the Hindu community, Ganesh's universal appeal transcends cultural and societal boundaries, touching lives across different faiths and social strata.

Ganesh is often associated with the removal of obstacles, both material and spiritual, which makes his guidance sought after by many. His characteristic joy and belief in the transformative power of humour serve as a source of comfort and inspiration, encouraging the notion that no hurdle is too great to overcome.

India's adoption of the name Bharat, denoting a quest for knowledge, echoes a global ethos of blending Eastern and Western thought to advance society's collective enlightenment.

In our story, Lord Ganesh's dominion over contrasts represents our own search for balance amid the daily dichotomies we face, as we seek to align the disparate elements of contrast within ourselves.

THE MARKET

Female-led superhero sci-fi films are breaking new ground, showcasing unique narratives and redefining what it means to be a hero.

Chris Pine, the male lead in Wonder Woman, captured this sentiment in Vanity Fair saying: “To have a female superhero story that is about love and compassion and nurturing of life... is very important. At the heart of the movie, it’s about people falling in love and being passionate and being heroic. It’s a great lesson...instead of other movies where shit is blowing up all the time.”

Superhero films also thrive on the theme of individual power, as seen in Star Wars, where childhood nostalgia and the belief that anything is possible have made the franchise a billion-dollar phenomenon.

This universal appeal has even translated into marketing successes, with one of the most shared Super Bowl ad in history inspired by the genre, drawing over 60 million viewers.

Our film aims to carry this legacy forward, infusing the senses with a cohesive blend of body, mind, and spirit to inspire and uplift audiences.

MARKETING PLAN

Millennials are moving away from solely celebrity-driven films, wanting to connect to more in-depth storylines - a trend that is likely to evolve for some time. Our plan focuses on marketing the film around the message of the story itself, derived from the teachings of real-life masters.

Marketing through social media will be driven by the visual and auditory content of the film, translating into quotes, memes, and captivating online art. In addition, our unique holistic website will launch features concurrently with the marketing plan.

Our team brings together a dynamic mix of talent—from leaders in comedy and music to holistic practitioners, entrepreneurs, and innovators working at the edge of emerging technologies—creating a multifaceted appeal that resonates with diverse audiences across platforms.

After the credits roll, we will have clips of real life superheroes and how they made the film come together from start to finish. Our motivation is to create a movement of self-empowerment through the Mekhala trilogy and its transmedia campaign.

METHOD OF OUTREACH

We are seeking individuals who are passionate about creating positive change and uplifting others, as well as those who may feel stuck in cycles of self-doubt, negative patterns, or scarcity mindsets. Our mission is to provide a pathway for people to transform their lives, embrace their potential, and step into a more empowered version of themselves.

At the heart of our work is a commitment to mental and spiritual health and wellness. We focus on continuous learning to discover innovative solutions that help people grow and thrive. By fostering a community of creatives, problem-solvers, and forward-thinkers, we aim to tackle meaningful challenges and inspire a movement for change.

Our marketing team based out of Miami has begun talks worldwide. As an example of interest, we have received support from the Mayor of Doral who is planning special screenings of the film, along with an immersive Oculus experience in 800 theatres across Los Angeles - alongside broader outreach initiatives to expand our reach and impact.

Additionally, the platform connects users with international practitioners, delivering transformative services wherever they're needed.

OUR VISION

Ziron is redefining storytelling by pioneering the genre of Super-Spiritualism, fusing creative narratives with insights from the greatest minds of our time across diverse disciplines.

Mekhala is designed to both educate and entertain, delving into themes such as superhuman potential, love, esotericism, alternative history, groundbreaking technology, and healing.

By seamlessly blending magic with logic, Ziron sparks a new wave of consciousness, bridging science and spirituality in real time. For the price of a movie ticket, audiences will leave not only entertained but programmed and awakened to new possibilities.

THEMES

One of the biggest grievances from fans of the superhero genre is that you leave the theatre ready to charge but with nowhere to direct your energy. At the end of Mekhala, audiences will be guided to our website and app where they can perform real-life 'magic' as seen throughout the film, learning how to become a superhero themselves. Whereas in Rocky we saw an underdog fighting against insurmountable odds, our film's underdog is unity and sovereignty consciousness tackling fear and division stemming from corporate and elitist greed - a battle that many see as impossible to win.

CINEMATIC STYLE

The film's cinematic style will reflect the theme of the film – sound design techniques utilizing healing hertz frequencies, vibrant cinematography in places of energetic power around the globe, along with dialogue programmed to awaken our audience's mindset to reflect on their own spiritual connection with our great Mother Earth.

EDUTAINMENT

The film will explore the healing potential of Earth's energetic meridians, ley lines, sacred geometry, and star gates, embedding these high-frequency concepts to elevate viewers' consciousness.

Ley lines are Earth's energetic meridians, connecting sacred landmarks through a network of geometric and vibrational pathways. They are conduits for the flow of subtle energies that influence the biological and consciousness fields of all living beings.

Using sacred symbols, light language, and BC3 technology, the film aims to subtly reprogram audiences toward unity, joy, and love, reawakening the collective spirit. Light language—an intuitive, high-frequency expression capable of DNA healing and consciousness expansion—will be introduced throughout, allowing viewers to experience these concepts at a deep, subconscious level.

This pioneering approach positions us at the forefront of New Media, reminding us of our interconnectedness as one global organism.

ANCILLARY PRODUCTS

All merchandise in our initiative will be eco-friendly and educational, created in partnership with Greenigma Consulting. Products, like the biodegradable Japanese newspaper seen on the right, which transforms into flowers once planted, will encourage sustainability.

World maps will be reimagined to feature ley lines, guiding users on performing “still points” to counteract the negative impacts of modern technology and waste. This collaboration blends quantum energy concepts with real-life heroism, inspiring viewers to realize their potential as positive forces in the world.

Separate investment opportunities available for development of Holistic website

MERGING PHYSICAL AND METAPHYSICAL

We will be able to directly affect people's personal reality through the screen by pulling up holographic scans of the body and Earth, showing grids upon which all life is based in the quantum field. Once this is understood, we will be able to re-code these grids on a level that can be integrated into hospitals, schools, restaurants, businesses and governments. When these fundamental building blocks are incorporated on the most basic scale, the quantum realm will open up to us and we can fully understand the nature of the unseen and create real magic, thus bridging Heaven and Earth. We will be able to weave this tapestry into the mundane and the extraordinary.

We have team members who have died and come back to life. They have seen these extraordinary visions for themselves. Even though many wanted to stay in heaven, they chose to return to Earth to fully embrace their soul missions.

Videos: Woman Walks Again! | Reprogramming Consciousness

SACRED GEOMETRY

We are like biological computers, constantly connected to streams of data from all our past realities—both positive and negative. The goal is to re-code the underlying equations within every human, unlocking profound potential for transformation.

By making subtle adjustments to this geometrical data, we can influence not just individuals but the Earth itself, accelerating healing and evolution in ways previously unimaginable. These learnings, once integrated into daily life, hold the power to reshape our collective future.

Through the film, the audience's soul or light body will resonate with these truths, triggering a deep sense of remembering. This awakening will activate their authentic Self and multidimensional essence, naturally beginning the re-coding of consciousness and aligning humanity with a higher purpose.

CELESTIAL TECHNOLOGY

A key element of this journey is the integration of Star and Earth technology. Human beings act as conduits between the Earth and the Stars, channeling high-vibrational data streams through their bodies into the planet. This process anchors light into the Earth's grids, which travel along ley lines, facilitating ascension. Simultaneously, our light bodies are activating and expanding in a dual process of transformation.

By working with celestial beings—stars, planets, suns, and moons—we gain access to their light, codes, and profound knowledge to drive this evolution.

Beyond Celestial Technology, we will also:

- Showcase the intricate interconnectedness of trees, mushrooms, crystals, and other natural elements.
 - Visualize the networks of spores, roots, and energy flows both above and below ground.
 - Reveal the remarkable communication systems of nature, offering a glimpse into a hidden world of energy and connection rarely seen by the naked eye.

ENVIRONMENT: LOCATION & SET LIFE

Our film sets will start with meditation between the groups, setting an intention for the project before we even yell 'Action' on our first day of shooting. The group has already been meditating together for over a year and the collective energy is extremely potent.

On-set we will have relaxing settings which offer alternative healing modalities and high-vibrational food, where each cast and crew member is treated equally with respect and love. Samples include: projectors playing light language mandala transmissions, yoga, reiki, massage, smoothie and juice bar, nap pods, oxygen machines, hyperbaric chambers, med beds, reflexologists, Bio-energy machines, sun lamps, green spaces and hammocks.

All filming locations will be chosen carefully in accordance to their vibrational frequency. For the Mekhala series of films we have already scouted over 15 locations to shoot our trilogy.

CALL TO ACTION

The days of calling on governments and local MP's to change our world are over. The power lies in the people, and we are all helping to create a transformation through our acknowledgement as one organism acting as a whole. Our systems are overloaded as is, and we do not need more rules and regulations to change what we already know in our hearts to be true.

The Call to Action for each audience member starts within: when they take ownership for their life, they will align with their soul's mission. Eventually they will be creating their own Calls to Action that will ripple through time and space.

There is an awakening occurring on this planet that cannot be denied – and our voices can no longer be ignored. When humanity is able to merge their divine masculine and feminine counterparts within, we will be able to activate change that sweeps across the entire universe.

OUR TEAM

Our global team's expertise is derived from a wide range of backgrounds including commodities trading corporations, big banks, military, technology, governments, pharmaceuticals, fashion, and film.

We understand the intricacies of these industries and their role in our day-to-day lives. They have worked with some of the most powerful and influential individuals on the planet.

With our combined knowledge and networking power, we will create an incredible body of work that is already in development.
